

BIEN News Editor's report

We have several new volunteers, and most of them written something for the site, using Trello to coordinate. We're trying to publish something original at least twice to three times a month. We have also started to expand our language offer, and now have articles in Spanish and French, with Chinese, Hindi and Japanese to come.

Barb Jacobson