Wednesday 8 March 2023

Downing College, Regent Street, Cambridge, CB2 1DQ, UK

The Cambridge Trust for New Thinking in Economics (CTNTE) is happy to announce our first conference since the global pandemic – Policies to Tackle the Cost of Living Crisis.

The current cost of living crisis has amassed substantial attention, affecting us all to varying degrees, but what policies could actually tackle this crisis? This is what our conference will explore.

Our speakers will cover a range of topics and potential solutions to spiralling costs of living, including:

- the macroeconomic implications of basic income
- the role of technology in reducing labour income
- the funding of basic income via direct money financing
- the links between wealth and income, and their implications for basic income
- national solutions to the cost of living crisis

Registration for the conference, alongside more detailed information regarding the conference agenda, is available via the events page on our website.

The standard conference fee is £145, with a special rate of £55 for academics, not-for-profit organisations and placement students. There are a limited number of free places available for non-placement students – please contact the Trust for availability.

We look forward to seeing you there!
